

Using inference and deduction skills

Using these skills are just as valuable when 'reading' images.

Today you are going to 'read' this image and create an interesting piece of writing about this character.

Answer the questions on the following slide use as much detail as possible to bring this character to life.

Answer the questions using evidence from the picture

- Who do you think this is?
- Why is he carrying all of those jars? What's inside them? Why are they attached to his clothing? Couldn't he just carry them in a bag?
- Why is he wearing this clothing?
- Is he going to open the blue jar? Why?
- Why is his other fist clenched?
- What does his body language tell you about his thoughts and feelings?
- Help! The Jar Wizard's jars are all missing their labels! Please write labels naming the contents, detailing what it is and what it can be used for. Be sure to include any necessary safety warnings too!
- Read this description of The Jar Wizard

He held many secrets in those enchanted jars of his: mysterious crystals, odd nick-knacks from unknown cultures, ancient coins from civilizations long dead, and the preserved remains of creatures believed to be long extinct. But there was one jar, smaller and rounder than the rest, that contained a dark liquid that he seemed most proud of. "This," he said with an unsettling gleam in his eye, "is the blood of one of the Original Fish, the creators of all magic. I pray I never have cause to use it..."

- What happens if he uses the blood of one of the Original Fish?
- What does 'I pray I never have cause to use it...' mean? What does it tell you about the substance?
