

Thank you to those who sent me your crosswords and word searches last time – they were fab! I will be using them next year for homework!

Hope you had a lovely weekend

Starting the week with spellings and handwriting, as it is our last Monday online it's 2 lots again 😊

Spellings

This week, we are going to look at how we can create adjectives using a particular suffix...

We will look at how the –ful suffix can be added to nouns or verbs to create adjectives.

Mr Whoops has muddled up some of your spelling words.

Can you help him to unjumble them?

big letters- cut them out, mix them and then pick them out and then spell them out again using the cut up letters 😊

Creating Adjectives Using the Suffix -ive

-ive which simply means 'tending to' or 'having the nature of'.

We will look at how the -ive suffix can be added to nouns or verbs to create adjectives.

Creating Adjectives Using the Suffix -ive

Mr Whoops is unsure which –ive word to use to complete these sentences.
Can you help him to choose the correct word?

Caffeine is an extremely addictive/abusive substance.

Like 'Mr Whoops' did, put all your – ive words into a sentence. Make the spelling bold by doing it in a colour/bold/underline/wavy handwriting. Just make it stand out.

l m n o p

q r s t u

v w x y z

Remember:

- The start of each word should begin on the line (with the join)
- Ensure you join each word fully
- Don't join capital letters

Copy this out in your book in your neatest, joined handwriting. Remember to start each word on the line. Have a look at the handwriting poster on the previous page to remind yourself of the correct letter formation

Rio 2016 Olympics: Just how Great were Britain?

Great Britain smashed their medal target for the 2016 Olympics, achieved a succession of notable 'firsts' and caused a major stir by finishing second in the table, above global powerhouse China. Of the 366 athletes that went to the Rio Games for Team GB, 130 of them - just over 35% - returned with a medal, including every member of the 15-strong track cycling team.

Some notable firsts in this Olympics:

- Adam Peaty claimed GB's first gold of the Games, winning the 100m breaststroke in a world record time on day two.
- A first gold medal in men's gymnastics thanks to Max Whitlock in the floor exercise. Less than two hours later, he won pommel horse gold.
- Jack Laugher and Chris Mears claimed GB's first ever diving Olympic gold by winning the men's 3m synchronised springboard.
- Mark Cavendish finally claimed his first Olympic medal, adding a silver in the omnium to his multitude of honours achieved on the road.
- Bryony Page won a silver in the trampoline, Britain's first medal in the event following its introduction at the 2000 Games in Sydney,
- It's the first time Welsh competitors have won four gold medals at a single Games. Those came courtesy of Jade Jones (taekwondo), Hannah Mills (sailing), Owen Doull (cycling) and Elinor Barker (cycling).
- Sophie Hitchon claimed Britain's first ever medal in the women's hammer.
