

Answers from Tuesday's lesson

Oliver ate a mouthful of toast, gulped down some orange juice, then ran out of the house.
The swallows somersaulted though the air as they flew high above the city.

Past Tense	Present Tense	Future Tense
I danced	I am dancing	I will dance
The snow melted	The snow is melting	The snow will melt
James lied	James is lying	James will lie
Ella sang	Ella is singing	Ella will sing
I ate	I am eating	I will eat

If the fire alarm rang, evacuate the building.
Last year, Harry visited Disney Land.
On Saturday, I will be staying at Freya's house for a sleepover.
The wind blew strongly through the valley.
While on holiday, I swam in the ocean everyday.
After school I am going to see a film at the cinema.

Ava was late this morning, hopefully she will be on time tomorrow.

I do my spellings after dinner, Jack does his before football practice.

You were at my house last Saturday. We did the Harlem Shake and had lots of fun.

Milo and Everly have been very silly today.

I have two cats, they're called Alan and Nigel.

Finley is my little brother. Sometimes I don't like him much, but I'm very lucky to have him!

We were supposed to go the park today but it rained.

My homework is finished, I did it earlier. Yasmin hasn't handed hers in but she doesn't care.

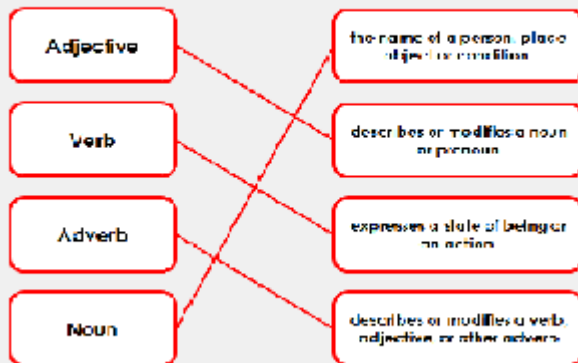

I was chosen to be Star of the Week.

I saw you in Tesco last night.

The new football boots Freddie ordered came yesterday .

Miss Perkins said the story I wrote was very good.

'To be' is a verb, isn't it?

In the future, the smartest homes will have many automated facilities and this may also include some form of artificial intelligence.

The stairs descended before them and with each step they were enveloped in a darkness.

Descended and were enveloped are verbs. Step and before are not.

Each time we deplete the resources of the world, our actions effect areas unknown to us.

effect deplete give

Markie is incorrect because he has missed the verbs 'to know' and 'are'. He should have underlined 'are making' instead of just 'making'. He has incorrectly underlined 'essential' as this is an adjective.

L.O: To recognise that words can be used as both nouns and verbs

Nouns can also be verbs!

As we know, nouns are words that name things, people and places and verbs are words that name actions. However, the English language is never just that straight forward.

There are some nouns in English which can also be verbs.

Today we are looking at collection of words that can be used both as nouns and verbs.

For example:

1

The doctor's surgery launched a new health scheme that would benefit everyone in the local community.

2

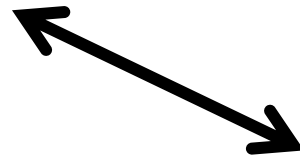

The company offered a pension plan, a company car and a health benefit scheme to their new employees.

Which of the sentences uses 'benefit' as a noun?

Can you think of any other words that could be nouns and verbs? Time yourself 1 minute and see how many you can come up with. Maybe even make it a challenge against someone in the house?

When the sun comes out we like to play in the park.

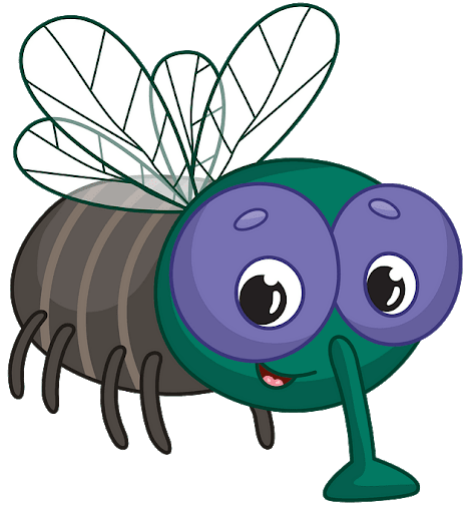

noun

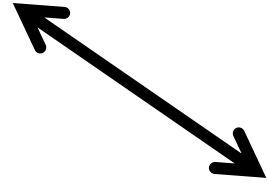

James had to park the car.

verb

The fly is really annoying me.

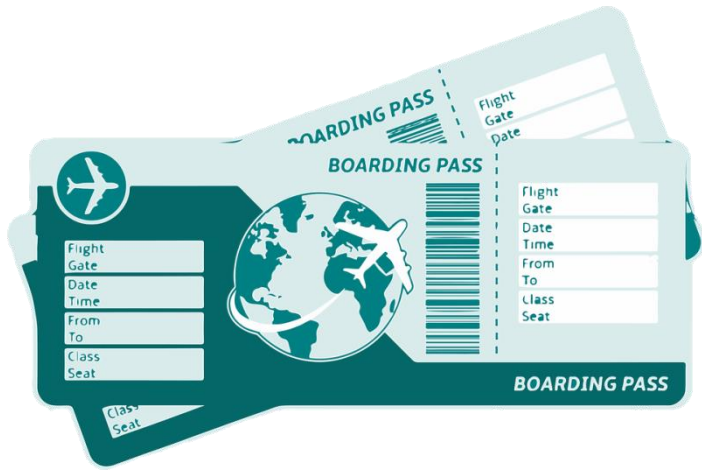

noun

The bird was getting ready to fly south for the Winter.

verb

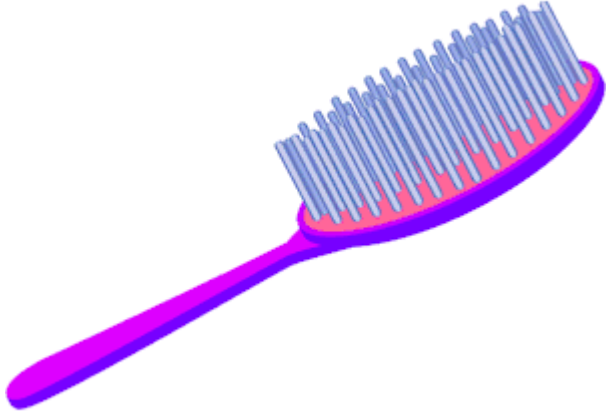

I can't wait until we can book our holiday.

↕
verb

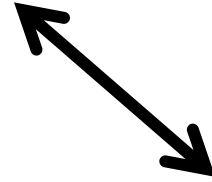

I love reading a good book.

↕
noun

She uses a brush to sort out her unruly hair.

noun

He is starting to brush his hair.

verb

I like to fish for fun.

↕
verb

This fish is really colourful.

↙
noun

Identifying whether it is a noun or a verb. In your book identify which one is which Read these sentences. Is the underlined word being used as a noun or a verb?

a) The group stood at the front of the class to present their debate speech. _____

Rubbing her eyes in disbelief, Nisha ran over to the present underneath the Christmas tree. _____

b) Dad was extremely pleased with the progress Billy had made in Year 6. _____

Victoria was trying to progress into the 100m backstroke final. _____

c) Holly was starting to suspect that her little brother had stolen the last chocolate biscuit. _____

After a long chase, the police officer finally caught up with the suspect. _____

Now it's your turn: Write two sentences for these words – 1 sentence using it as a noun and 1 using it as a verb

- Display
- Scratch
- Wave
- Lift
- Land
- Damage

You cannot change the word by adding suffixes, prefixes or plurals.

Give each on an illustration like I did too!

If the sentence is verb, write a sentence using the word as a noun.
If the sentence is a noun, write a sentence using the word as a verb.

6a. Is the underlined word in the sentence below being used as a noun or a verb?

The whisper from the teacher could be heard at the back of the hall.

6b. Is the underlined word in the sentence below being used as a noun or a verb?

Year 6 will present their ideas to the rest of the school every month.

10b. Is the underlined word in the sentence below being used as a noun or a verb?

We will permit you to bring your own food to the event although there will be some available to buy.

10a. Is the underlined word in the sentence below being used as a noun or a verb?

This week's history homework is to research Mary Queen of Scots and present it in a poster.

<https://wordwall.net/play/2725/424/509>

Copy the link up above for a noun or verb quiz

