

Activity 1 – Weekly spellings

Can you write each of these words into a sentence?

minute quarter month
second

Activity 2 – Handwriting

Let's take some of these spelling words. In your work book, practise your handwriting. Do a line of each of these:

WELCOME TO THURSDAY!

YOU'VE ONLY GOT TWO MORE DAYS AND THEN IT IS THE SCHOOL HOLIDAYS!!

We are going to continue with our writing week on 'The Crash'.

You have already done some work on the picture including answering some questions and a 'sentence challenge'.

Today and tomorrow we are going to make some 'sick sentences' better and you are also going to finish the story about Lawrence.

Activity 3:

Look at this picture. Write five sentences about what you can see. Try to include adverbs (like you practised earlier in the week in the sentence challenge you did).

What can he:
SEE
SMELL TOUCH?
How does he:
FEEL?

Activity 4:

I am going to show you some sentences that are 'sick'.

Can you make them better?

Copy out the sick sentence and then make it better by IMPROVING the:

Adjectives - describing words

Adverbs – describes the verb

Verbs - doing words

Adding extra information (conjunction) – FANBOYS

Look at the next two slides for some ideas of what to do.

Think about your word choices carefully when improving your sentences.

SICK SENTENCE: There had been a crash.

That's a bit boring! We can do better than that!

Let's add an adverb.

Unfortunately there had been a crash.

That's much better.
Let's improve the description of the crash.

Unfortunately there had been a nasty, horrible crash.

I like the double adjectives!

I think we need an adverbial for time.

Unfortunately, there had been a nasty, horrible crash early in the evening.

I like the adverbial that tells me when the crash happened.

Here is our improved sentence!
It is GREAT!

Unfortunately, there had been a nasty, horrible crash early in the evening.

Wow! We've made the sick sentence better!

Copy out the sentence and then improve them

Sick Sentence 1:

The helicopter was broken.

Sick Sentence 2:

Lawrence was hurt.

Sick Sentence 3:

Lawrence was crying.

Sick Sentence 4:

The helicopter was laying in the grass.

EXTENSION TASK

Did you know that on this day in 1969 that the Apollo 11 was launched.

Apollo 11 carried Neil Armstrong, Buzz Aldrin and Tim Collins and it was the first mission that reached and landed on our moon.

Ask an adult to help you find some clips on YouTube. It is amazing to think that this event was over 50 years ago!

Imagine you are Neil Armstrong.

Draw a cartoon strip showing the Apollo lifting off and landing on the moon.

Think about what Neil, Buzz and Tim would say to each other and put this into speech bubbles in your cartoon strip.
